

Hawaiian Discovery 2014
The Big Island
Student - Parent Agreement

_____ agrees to accept the following requirements to participate in the Hawaiian Discovery field trip to the Big Island of Hawaii.

1. To attend lunch meetings as assigned.
2. To participate in a team building/camping skill development retreat in the spring (late April / early May).
3. To participate in a snorkel orientation session after school in May.
After school sessions take priority over other after school commitments, i.e., lacrosse practice, piano lessons, etc.
4. To pay
 $300 NON-REFUNDABLE deposit by September 5
 $ ___ by November 1
 $ ___ by February 7.
 2000-2200 (to be determined by September 5).
4. Students supply snorkel gear, sleeping bag, sleeping pad, day pack, airline compliant carry on suitcase, and other miscellaneous items.
5. Students are responsible for transportation to and from the Grand Junction.
6. To maintain high academic and behavioral expectations of Redlands Middle School in all classes at all times. If a student is involved in any activities that result in in-school or out-of-school suspension, that student has automatically forfeited his/her opportunity to participate in the 2012-13 Hawaiian Discovery field trip. If a student misbehaves on the trip in such a manner that requires he/she be sent home early, the parent/guardian is responsible for any additional costs needed to get the student from Kona back to Grand Junction.
7. If, for any reason, including, but not limited to in-school or out of school suspensions, it is necessary to forfeit the opportunity to participate in the trip, refunds will only be given per airfare agreements and other previous arrangements.

We have read the application expectations, pre-trip expectations, trip expectations and payment expectations. We agree to abide by all expectations described.
